Notes from the Editor

With our reduced winter schedule, June has been a quiet month at Manly Sailability, but no less enjoyable for sailors and volunteers who made it out on the water when the weather allowed. Petra, one of our new volunteers, took on the Sailing Day Co-Ordinator role for the first time, and by all accounts did an excellent job.

With an open invitation to Sailability Belmont's regatta in August, and the recent run of sunnier weather, there's plenty to look forward to in the months ahead. So, wrap up warm and come and join us on the water while it's quieter!

Happy sailing to all.
